Black History month

- Today is National Freedom Day. It kicks off Black History Month because today in 1865 was the day of the 13th Amendment abolishing slavery
- On this day in 1960, four black students stage a sit-in at a segregated Greensboro, NC lunch counter – student of nonviolence who were spurred to action by injustice and the brutal murder of Emmett Till
- Carter G. Woodson, considered a pioneer in the study of African-American history, is given much of the credit for Black History Month
